

ELECTRICIAN

An electrician is shown in profile, facing left, working on a dark blue electrical panel. He is wearing a bright orange safety suit with reflective stripes, a matching orange hard hat with a green sticker that says "2018", and safety glasses. He is holding a long metal tool, possibly a screwdriver or a probe, which is inserted into the panel. The background is dark, and to the right, there is a vertical strip of yellow and black diagonal hazard stripes.
